INDEX TO SEARCH AND SEIZURE LAW REPORT

VOLUMES 21 and 22 (January 1994–December 1995)

File this index as pages 177 to 182 to the Volume 21–22 binder.

[References are to page numbers]

– A –

Aerial searches by police, see Searches and seizures of air passengers and pilots
Air passengers, searches of, see Searches and seizures of air passengers and pilots
Arizona v. Evans, Supreme Court grants certiorari to decide Leon extension, 56
Armed forces, Fourth Amendment and, see Does the Fourth Amendment apply to the armed forces
Atneosen, Steven T., and Beverly J. Wolfe
Authors of article, 73–80

– B –

Bacigal, Ronald J.
Author of article, 49–56
Berkemer v. McCarty, see Conflicting doctrines, Terry and Miranda, see also Fourth Amendment and Miranda's concept of custody
Borch, Frederic L., see Lederer, Fredric I., and Frederic L. Borch
Border searches and Fourth Amendment rights
Inbound searches
Non-routine, 27–28
Routine, 26–27
Introduction, 25–26
Outbound searches
Non-routine, 28–30
Routine, 28
Routine search defined, 30–32
Breyer, Stephen, Supreme Court Justice, see Justice Stephen Breyer and the Fourth Amendment
Brower v. County of Inyo, see Right of the people to be secure
Buckstop operations, see Border searches and Fourth Amendment rights
Burkoff, John M., and Gabrielle S. Moses
Authors of article, 57–64

– C –

Calandra v. U.S., see Exclusionary rule, saving the Caldwell, Harry M., see Kyriazis, Arthur J., and Harry M. Caldwell
California v. Beheler, see Conflicting doctrines, Terry and Miranda, see also Fourth Amendment and Miranda's concept of custody
California v. Hodari D., see Right of the people to be secure
Camara v. Municipal Court, see Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton, see also Warrants without probable cause
Carroll v. U.S., see Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton
Cloud, Morgan
Author of article, 89–96, 129–36
Computer Search and Seizure Working Group
Drafter of guidelines, 113–20
Computers, federal guidelines for searching and seizing, see Federal guidelines for searching and seizing computers
Conflicting doctrines, Terry and Miranda
Conclusion, 128
Early Terry and its relationship to Miranda, 121–23
Introduction, 121
Options
Miranda applicable to custodial Terry stops, 125–26
Miranda inapplicable to all Terry encounters, 124–25
Terry returned to intended contours, 126–28
Recent expansion of Terry, 123–24
Corr, Kevin
Author of article, 161–67
County of Riverside v. McLaughlin, see Warrantless misdemeanor arrests and the Fourth Amendment
Court–sanctioned stealth searches and seizures
Advice to prosecutors and police agencies, 166
Caselaw
Freitas, U.S. v., 162–65, 166–67
Johns, U.S. v., 163
New York Tel. Co., U.S. v., 162
Pangburn, U.S. v., 164–65
Sitton, U.S. v., 164
Villegas, U.S. v., 164–65
Conclusion, 166–67
Future trends, 166
Heal, U.S. v., 165–66
Introduction, 161–62
Crocker, Lawrence
Author of article, 33–40
Custody, concept of, see Fourth Amendment and Miranda's concept of custody

– D –

Daniel, State v. (Florida), Reaffirmation of reasonable officer pretext test, 176
Davis v. Mississippi, see Warrants without probable cause

Does the Fourth Amendment apply to the armed forces
Addendum, 103
Conclusion, 102–3
Cox view of search and seizure in the armed forces (U.S. v. Lopez), 101
Fourth Amendment likely does not apply fully to armed forces, 99–101
Need for Supreme Court resolution, 98–99
Obtaining Supreme Court review, 101–2
Overview, 97–98
Drug exception to Fourth Amendment, see Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton
Drug war, see Searches and seizures of air passengers and pilots

– E –

Exclusionary rule, see $19,047 in U.S. Currency (Rodriguez), U.S. v., see also Police perjury and the Fourth Amendment
Exclusionary rule, inevitable discovery exception to, see Immunized testimony, inevitable discovery exception to exclusionary rule
Exclusionary rule, saving the
Conclusion, 40
Contingent violation theory, 35–36
Enforcement clause
Compatibility with case language, 36–38
Compatibility with normative interpretation, 38
Compatibility with text and history of constitution, 38
Implicit in Fourth Amendment, 36
Relevance of stare decisis, 39–40
Introduction, 33
Mapp v. Ohio
Downfall of, 34–35
Essential deterrent sanction argument, 34
Extended violation argument, 34
Implied privilege argument, 33–34
Problem after Calandra and Leon, 35
Ezeiruaku, U.S. v., see Border searches and Fourth Amendment rights

– F –

Factors for reasonable suspicion, when black and poor means stopped and frisked
Conclusion, 71–72
From Terry forward, how much is enough to stop and frisk, 65–66
Implications, 68–70
Introduction, 65
Proposals, 70–71
Reasonable suspicion, location plus evasion equals
Automatic frisks in drug cases, 68
Evasion of police cases, 67
Location and evasion cases, 67–68
Location cases, 67
Minnesota v. Dickerson, 66–67
Federal guidelines for searching and seizing computers
Describing the items to be seized, 118–19
Drafting a warrant to seize information, 116–17
Handling multiple sites in different districts, 117
Hardware
As an instrumentality of the offense, 115–16
As contraband or fruits of crime, 114–15
As evidence of an offense, 116
Independent component doctrine, 114
Seizing, 114
Information at an unknown site, 117–18
Introduction, 113–14
No-knock warrant, seeking authority for, 119–20
Fifth Amendment protection against compelled self-incrimination, see Fourth Amendment and Miranda's concept of custody
Fourth Amendment and Miranda's concept of custody
Beheler and Berkemer, 20–21
Conclusion, 24
Custody, essential predicate of Miranda, 19–20
Introduction, 17–19
Limits of shared values, 22–24
Stops and arrests, concepts of, 21–22
Fourth Amendment, armed forces and, see Does the Fourth Amendment apply to the armed forces
Fourth Amendment, central meaning of
Conclusion, 16
Overview, 9–10
Rational police intrusions or warrants, 10–11
Reasonableness model, 14–15
Text and meaning, 11–12
Theoretical prospects, 15–16
Warrantless searches vs. judges and magistrates, 12–14
Fourth Amendment, drug exception to, see Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton
Fourth Amendment, legal pragmatism and, see Pragmatism, rules and the Fourth Amendment
Fourth Amendment opinions of Justice Stephen Breyer, see Justice Stephen Breyer and the Fourth Amendment
Fourth Amendment, police perjury and, see Police perjury and the Fourth Amendment
Fourth Amendment rights, border searches and, see Border searches and Fourth Amendment rights
Fourth Amendment, rules and, see Pragmatism, rules and the Fourth Amendment
Fourth Amendment, warrantless misdemeanor arrests, see Warrantless misdemeanor arrests and the Fourth Amendment
Franks, U.S. v., see Justice Stephen Breyer and the Fourth Amendment
Freitas, U.S. v., see Court-sanctioned stealth searches and seizures
Frisking under Terry
Analysis, 139–41
Conclusion, 143
From Terry to present, Supreme Court cases, 137–38
Introduction, 137

Proliferation of automatic frisk, 138–39
Proposed rules for frisks, 141–43

– G –

Gerstein v. Pugh, see Warrantless misdemeanor arrests and the Fourth Amendment
Godsey, Mark A.
author of article, 120–28
Gonzalez–Rivera v. INS, Stop made on basis of Hispanic appearance required exclusion of evidence in INS proceeding, 72
Griffin v. Wisconsin, see Warrants without probable cause

– H –

Harris, David A.
Author of article, 65–72, 137–43
Hayes v. Florida, see Warrants without probable cause
Hazelwood v. State (Alaska), see Immunized testimony, inevitable discovery exception to exclusionary rule and Heal, U.S. v., see Court–ordered stealth searches and seizures
Henry, U.S. v., Protective sweep of apartment after arrest outside held justified, 143–44
Hernandez, U.S. v., Stop based on alleged parking violation held unconstitutional pretext to investigate possible drug activity, 159

– I –

Illinois v. Gates, see Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton
Immunized testimony, inevitable discovery exception to exclusionary rule and
Analysis, 7–8
Conclusion, 8
Constitutional rights, vindication of
Fourth Amendment, 4
Fifth Amendment, 5
Sixth Amendment, 4–5
Historical background, 2
Immunity jurisprudence, inevitable discovery doctrine crosses over to, 5–7
Introduction, 1–2
Transactional immunity era, 2–3
Use and derivative use immunity, 3
Use and derivative use immunity statutes, 3
Ishmael, U.S. v., Warrantless use of thermal imager held constitutional, 160

– J –

Jacoby, U.S. v., see Does the Fourth Amendment apply to the armed forces
Johns, U.S. v., see Court-ordered stealth searches and seizures
Joyce, State v. (Connecticut), Warrantless analysis of clothing held unconstitutional, 80
Justice Stephen Breyer and the Fourth Amendment
Anello, U.S. v., probable cause to arrest, 60–61
Beltran, U.S. v., exigency for warrantless searches, 58–59
Berryman, U.S. v., seizures; consent, 63–64
Butler, U.S. v., probable cause; good–faith exception, 61
Conclusion, 64
Cox, U.S. v., consent to search, 61
Daoust, U.S. v., plain view; protective sweeps, 59
Doe, U.S. v., seizure of personal effects, 60
Doherty, U.S. v., plain view searches, 60
Donlan, U.S. v., consent searches; exigency, 59
Gendron, U.S. v., anticipatory warrants, 57
Guarino, U.S. v., search warrants, 63
Irizarry, U.S. v., standing, 64
Jodoin, U.S. v., seizures, 62–63
Kincaid, U.S. v., pretext searches, 61–62
Levy, U.S. v., search of in-transit passengers, 60
Maldonado-Espinosa, U.S. v., consent searches, 58
Navedo-Colón, U.S. v., consent searches, 57
Paleo, U.S. v., stop and frisk, 58
Parcel of Land and Residence Located Thereon at 5 Bell Rock Road, U.S. v., Franks hearings, 59–60
Ramos-Morales, U.S. v., automobile impoundment, 57–58
Smith, U.S. v., seizure of evidence, 59
Strahan, U.S. v., inventory searches, 62
Tabares, U.S. v., search warrant probable cause, 58
Timpani, U.S. v., search warrants, 63
Wilkinson, U.S. v., trash searches; consent searches, 58
Young, U.S. v., search warrants, 60

– K –

Kastigar v. U.S., see Immunized testimony, inevitable discovery exception to exclusionary rule and Katz v. U.S., see Plain feel exception, parameters of, see also Right of the people to be secure
Kyriazis, Arthur J., and Harry M. Caldwell
Authors of article, 25–32

– L –

Laser, Rachel Karen
Author of article, 169–76
Lederer, Fredric I., and Frederic L. Borch
Authors of article, 97–103
Legal pragmatism, see Pragmatism, rules and the Fourth Amendment
Leon, U.S. v./Leon good-faith exception, see Arizona v. Evans, see also Court-sanctioned stealth searches and seizures, see also Exclusionary rule, saving the Limiting government power, see Fourth Amendment, central meaning of Lopez, U.S. v., see Does the Fourth Amendment apply to the armed forces

– M –

Maclin, Tracey
Author of article, 9–16
Mapp v. Ohio,* see Exclusionary rule, saving the, see also Police perjury and the Fourth Amendment
Martinez-Fuerte, U.S. v., see Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton
Massachusetts v. Sheppard,* see Court-sanctioned stealth searches and seizures
Miller, Jonathan Lewis
Author of article, 105–12
Minnesota v. Dickerson,* see Conflicting doctrines, Terry and Miranda, see also Factors for reasonable suspicion, when black and poor means stopped and frisked, see also Trine, State v. (Connecticut), see also Plain feel exception, parameters of, see also Unreasonable suspicion, relying on refusals to support Terry stops
Miranda v. Arizona/Miranda* rights, see Conflicting doctrines, Terry and Miranda, see also Fourth Amendment and Miranda's concept of custody
Mire, U.S. v., Consent to general search of bag held to permit dismantling of shoe with oversized sole found inside bag, 158–59
Mitchell, People v.* (Illinois), Plain touch seizure held lawful under Illinois constitution, 167–68
Montoya de Hernandez, U.S. v., see* Border searches and Fourth Amendment rights
Moses, Gabrielle S., see Burkoff, John M., and Gabrielle S. Moses

– N –

National Treasury Employees Union v. Von Raab, see Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton
Nelson, U.S. v., Search warrant for defendant's person held not to authorize body cavity search, 103–4
New York Tel. Co., U.S. v., see* Court-ordered stealth searches and seizures
$19,047 in U.S. Currency (Rodriguez), U.S. v., Exclusionary rule held to apply in civil forfeiture proceeding, 120

– O –

On seizures and searches
Implementation
Current exceptions to warrant requirement, 151
Supreme Court's approach to Fourth Amendment rights, 150–51
Warrant issuance system, 149–50
Introduction, 145
Observations on seizure, 151–52
Proposal and current law
For automobiles, 146–48
For container as automobile, 149
For containers, 146
For residence as automobile, 148
For residences, 146
Overview, 145–46
Rationale for new procedures, 145
Orhorhaghe v. Immigration Naturalization Service, Administrative search based on foreign-sounding name held unconstitutional, 112

– P –

Pangburn, U.S. v., see* Court-ordered stealth searches and seizures
Pellis, Mark D.
Editor of guidelines, see Computer Search and Seizure Working Group
Perjury, police, and Fourth Amendment, see Police perjury and the Fourth Amendment
Pilots, searches of, see Searches and seizures of air passengers and pilots
Plain feel exception, parameters of
Bright line rule, need for, 78
Conclusion, 80
Elements of plain view doctrine, 74–75
Objective standard, 79–80
Overview, 73
Plain view doctrine, 74
Plain view's extension to other senses, 75–78
Warrantless searches and seizures, 73–74
Workable standard, 78–79
Police perjury and the Fourth Amendment
Exclusionary rule and police perjury, 130–31
Fourth Amendment principles, 135–36
Introduction, 129
O.J. Simpson case
Detective Mark Furhman's demeanor, 134
Objective reasonableness, 133–34
Substantive plausibility in hard cases, 132–33
Warrantless investigation at estate, 132
Reasons judges accept police perjury, 131
Pragmatism, rules and the Fourth Amendment
Balancing by the Warren Court, 91–92
Balancing supplants the warrant rule, 92–94
Creating principled flexibility, 96
Legal pragmatism, 89–90
Pragmatism and the Fourth Amendment, 90–91
Rules and the Fourth Amendment, 95–96
Rules, institutional power and liberty, 94–95
What is wrong with the Fourth Amendment, 89
Probable cause, see Warrants without probable cause

– R –

Reasonableness clause of Fourth Amendment, see Fourth Amendment, central meaning of Reasonable suspicion, see Factors for reasonable suspicion, when black and poor means stopped and frisked
Refusal to consent to search, see Unreasonable suspicion, relying on refusals to support Terry stops
Richardson, Anita, Ph.D., J.D.

Author of article, 153–58
Right of the people to be secure
Accidental seizures, 50–51
Applying Katz to attempted seizures, 55
Attempted seizures, 51–55
Conclusion, 55–56
Introduction, 49–50
Robertson, U.S. v., Plain view seizure of photos and traffic tickets held unconstitutional, 40
Rotenberg, Daniel L.
Author of article, 145–52
Rowland, Steven R., see Walsh, Charles J., and Steven R. Rowland
Rule-based decisionmaking, see Pragmatism, rules and the Fourth Amendment

– S –

Schroeder, William A.
Author of article, 41–48
Search and seizure, see Court–sanctioned stealth searches and seizures, see also On seizures and searches, see also Federal guidelines for searching and seizing computers
Searches and seizures of air passengers and pilots
Conclusion, 111–12
Introduction, 105
Passengers
Consensual searches of, 105–6
From abroad, 108
Search of luggage and effects, 106–7
Seizure of; drug courier profile, 107–8
Pilots, drug testing of, 108–10
Police aerial investigation, 110–11
Searching and seizing computers, federal guidelines for, see Federal guidelines for searching and seizing computers
Seizures and searches, proposed modifications to procedures, see On seizures and searches
Simpson, O.J., case, see Police perjury and the Fourth Amendment
Sitton, U.S. v., see* Court–ordered stealth searches and seizures
Skinner v. Railway Labor Executives' Association, see* Pragmatism, rules and the Fourth Amendment, see also *Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton
Smith, State v.* (North Carolina), Warrantless search of drug suspect which exposed him by pulling down his pants on a city street held unconstitutional, 152
Stealth searches and seizures, see Court-sanctioned stealth searches and seizures
Stern, Barry Jeffrey
Author of article, 81–88
Streck, U.S. v., see* Immunized testimony, inevitable discovery exception to the exclusionary rule and

– T –

Taghizadeh, U.S. v., Fact that package sent from Turkey to post office box constituted reasonable cause for customs search, 56
Terry v. Ohio, see* Factors for reasonable suspicion, when black and poor means stopped and frisked, see also Frisking under Terry, see also Fourth Amendment and Miranda's concept of custody, see also Mitchell, People v. (Illinois), see also Plain feel exception, parameters of, see also Pragmatism, rules and the Fourth Amendment, see also Right of the people to be secure, see also Unreasonable suspicion, relying on refusals to support Terry stops, see also Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton, see also Warrants without probable cause
Trine, State v.* (Connecticut), Plain touch seizure held unlawful under Connecticut constitution, 168

– U –

Unreasonable suspicion, relying on refusals to support Terry stops
Conclusion, 176
Consent, 174
Overview, 169
Police discretion, 175
Progeny of Terry, 171–72
Prohibiting use of refusal as support for Terry stop, 174
Refusal as part of totality of the circumstances
Cases allowing, 172–73
Cases not allowing, 173–74
Refusal to consent as part of basis for Terry stop, 172
Seizures, 174–75
Supreme Court Fourth Amendment jurisprudence, 169
Totality of circumstances test, 175–76
Types of searches
Against a person's will, 171
Consensual searches, 170
Investigative, 171
Overview, 169–70

– V –

Veras, U.S. v., Warrantless search of secret compartment in back seat of car held constitutional as a search incident to arrest, 136
Vernonia School District 47J v. Acton
Background, 155–56
Certiorari granted by Supreme Court, 88
Decision and dissent, 156–58
Future prospects, 158
Introduction, 153–54
Villegas, U.S. v., see* Court-ordered stealth searches and seizures

– W –

Walsh, Charles J., and Steven R. Rowland
Authors of article, 1–8
Warrantless misdemeanor arrests and the Fourth Amendment

Absence of facts for magistrate to evaluate, 48
Conclusion, 48
Consequences of an arrest, 42
Felony/misdemeanor distinction, 43–44
Fourth Amendment, 42–43
Fourth Amendment reasonableness generally, 43
Frustration of purpose, 45–47
Gerstein-McLaughlin hearings as a substitute for warrant, 48
History and current practices, 47
In the courts, 41–42
Introduction, 41
Need for clear-cut rule, 47
Origin of common law rule, 41
Overloading the warrant process, 48
Reasonableness
And balancing of interests, 44–45
And current state practices, 45
Reasons for dispensing with warrants, 45
Reduced expectations of privacy, 47
Requirement of immediate arrest, 48
Seriousness of the intrusion, 47
Warrant clause generally, 45

Warrants without probable cause
Camara and variable probable cause, 81–82
Challenge to defensive use of warrants, 82–83
Conclusion, 88
Overview, 81
Reconciling Camara, 83
Warrant clause
Plain meaning of, 83–86
Trumping, 87
Weakening Fourth Amendment protection, 87
Williamson, Richard A.
Author of article, 17–24
Wills, State v.* (Minnesota), Search of third person's safe located on search of premises held constitutional, 128
Wilson v. Arkansas, Is knock-and-announce rule mandated by Fourth Amendment; certiorari granted by Supreme Court, 88
Wolfe, Beverly J., see Atneosen, Steven T., and Beverly J. Wolfe

– Y –

Young, State v.* (Washington), Use of infrared thermal detection device held unconstitutional, 32